REPORT

Date Oct. 18, 1939.

Subject. Communication dated October 5, 1939 from the Netherlands

Consulate-General concerning Mrs. Nadia Marco.

Made by D.C.I. Maklaevsky

Forwarded by C. G. G.

Mrs. Nadia Marco, alias Mrs. Feigen is a Russian of Jewish origin who was born on October 18, 1898 at Goldingen, Latvia. She arrived in Shanghai from Riga, Latvia in 1924 together with her husband and son and shortly after her arrival she established here a dress making salon.

In 1929 she divorced her husband and became the mistress of Mr. Hotimsky, a well known broker and cohabited with him for several years until he married another lady.

In 1930 her ex-husband left Shanghai for San Francisco, California, together with their son where they both are residing at present.

Several years ago Mrs. Marco sold her dress making salon to become a travelling representative for several local large dress making establishments and in the capacity of such, she visits various principal cities in the Far East.

She is reported to be a hard working business woman and there is nothing to report about her from the moral or political point of view. There is nothing detrimental in Police records to her character.

She took her maiden name of Marco after she had divorced Mr. Feigen. Mrs. Agnes Marco, residing at 133 Route Say Zoong, Apartment 7, is her aunt.
